

The FCC must keep rules in place that serve the public interest, rather than the narrow private interests of corporate media. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules, and respect the fact that the public owns the airwaves, not the corporate media or the government.